

Lesson Plan 3: “Il y a un alligator sous mon lit”

Activities <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Review the rooms of the house and the furniture in Albert’s House. Students try to guess where Albert is hiding. Albert is stuck with double-sided tape on back of one of the pictures.</li> <li>2. Anticipation guide: Students write three fears on a post-it™ note. Using the conversation guide students share their fears with their partner. (see page 28)</li> <li>3. Following the directions of the teacher in French the students post their fears on a large graph. Students and teacher discuss the most and the least common fears comparing with other classes.</li> <li>4. Teacher tells the story “Il y a un alligator sous mon lit” with the illustrations and words.</li> <li>5. The teacher retells the story with two students acting it out: one the alligator, the other the young boy.</li> <li>6. Students put nine of the pictures in order. Then they match the sentence strips to the illustrations.</li> </ol>	Objectives Students will listen and read the story <hr/> Standards Standard 1.1: Students engage in a conversation to their express feelings and emotions about their fears. Standard 1.2: Students understand and interpret written and spoken language pertaining to the story <hr/> Language <table style="width: 100%; border: none;"> <tr> <td style="width: 33%;">du noir</td> <td style="width: 33%;">des fantômes</td> <td style="width: 33%;">des serpents</td> </tr> <tr> <td>des monstres</td> <td>des insectes</td> <td>des souris</td> </tr> <tr> <td>de l’incendie</td> <td>d’accident</td> <td>d’autre chose</td> </tr> <tr> <td>J’ai peur...</td> <td>Je n’ai pas peur...</td> <td></td> </tr> </table> <hr/> Materials Albert the Alligator’s house &amp; furniture                  Fears conversation guide (see page 28)                  Post-it™ notes &amp; graph                  “Il y a un alligator sous mon lit” story                  Nine Story illustrations and sentence strips                  Quiz: Story illustrations and text (see page 29)	du noir	des fantômes	des serpents	des monstres	des insectes	des souris	de l’incendie	d’accident	d’autre chose	J’ai peur...
